

Product description

Uno-X Smøreolie Stævnørsolie 460

Emulsifiable oil for certain types of oil lubricated stern tubes on smaller vessels

Characteristics

Stævnørsolie 460 is an emulsifiable oil for use in oil lubricated stern tubes. The oil is also suitable for lubrication of machine parts within industry such as worm gears or spindles, where an emulsifiable oil without EP additives is required.

Stævnørsolie 460 easily emulsifies with all types of water and forms a particularly good and stable emulsion. Effectively protects against rust and corrosion and has a very good adhesion to all metal surfaces. The product is characterized by excellent lubrication.
